

Abuja National Mosque

Description

Also open to the non-Muslim public, the Abuja Mosque is Nigeria's national mosque built in 1984 during the change of capital from Lagos to Abuja. Consisting of one massive dome and four minarets rising to 120 meters in height, the building comprises conference rooms, a library, residential rooms and the office of the Islamic Center.

Metadata

- GPS Coordinates: 9.0602° N, 7.4898° E
- City: Abuja
- Country: Nigeria
- Landmarks: Monuments
- Cadastral Number: NG.L.M.A.1